Pearl Harbor shipyard exhibit at APEC summit

By Pearl Harbor Naval Shipyard Public Affairs

PEARL HARBOR, Hawaii – Pearl Harbor Naval Shipyard is supporting the Asia-Pacific Economic Cooperation (APEC) summit by staffing an exhibit at the Hawaii Convention Center Nov. 7-13. The week-long international conference is expected to draw 20,000 representatives from 21 member economies. President Barack Obama will attend APEC meetings and events Nov. 12-13.

The Shipyard is among 19 Hawaii companies and organizations staging exhibits on science, engineering and innovative technology. Gov. Neil Abercrombie, Mayor Peter Carlisle and Hawaii Tourism Authority President and CEO Mike McCartney toured the exhibits on opening day Nov. 7.

Pearl Harbor Naval Shipyard is a full-service naval shipyard and regional maintenance center for the U.S. Navy's surface ships and submarines. It is the largest industrial employer in the state of Hawaii with a combined civilian and military workforce of about 4,900 and an operating budget of $563 million.

Strategically located in the mid-Pacific, the Shipyard is about a week of steam time closer to potential major regional contingencies in East Asia than sites on the West Coast.
